

MANITOBA OPERA 07/08 35TH Season

Young Professionals'

NIGHT

at the Opera!

Your Special Invitation to Attend the World Premiere of

TRANSIT OF VENUS

"Arguably the must-see event of the fall"

— Morley Walker, Winnipeg Free Press

Friday, November 30, 2007

7pm Pre-show Wine & Dessert Reception, 8pm Performance

Manitoba Opera cordially invites members of the Winnipeg Junior Chamber of Commerce to experience an art form like no other and be part of history in the making!

Please join us for the Friday, November 30 performance of our world premiere of the new opera, Transit of Venus, the first mainstage opera ever commissioned by the company.

Members will receive a special rate of 20% off a pair of adult casual tickets in premiere seating sections and a private pre-show wine and dessert reception at which you will meet the composer, librettist and director. To enhance your experience, helpful performance information and the story synopsis, as well as reception details, will be emailed to you in advance.

JUST FOR YOU — 10% OFF AT TRE VISI AND BAILEY'S!

This special offer also includes 10% off at two of Winnipeg's finest restaurants located within walking distance of the Concert Hall.

TRE VISI
Cucina Italiana

Order tickets for this unique opportunity at:

www.ticketmaster.ca/promo/ckpltl

and use the Promotions and Special Offers code WJCC

TRANSIT OF Venus

Composed by Victor Davies with libretto by Maureen Hunter and based on the internationally acclaimed play of the same name by Ms. Hunter, Transit of Venus is a love story of destiny and desire that explores the question of achieving your potential or being with the person you love. It will feature a number of Canada's opera stars: Russell Braun, Judith Forst, Jean Stilwell, Monica Huisman, and Colin Ainsworth and will be sung in English with surtitles projected above the stage.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON TRANSIT OF VENUS, VISIT
www.manitobaopera.mb.ca

